

Christmas Celebrations at The Raleigh

(All unticketed events)

On Wednesday 12th December, the children who would usually have a hot school meal will enjoy Christmas lunch. All children, including those having a packed lunch, will eat in the hall on this day and have crackers provided by The Friends of The Raleigh. A big thank you to them!

If your child does not usually have a hot school meal but would like to have a Christmas lunch, please contact the school office who will be only too happy to arrange this for you.

KS2 children will eat first, followed by KS1. This is because the older children eat more quickly. For those new to the school, Christmas lunch is served to the children by the staff.
